

Internal/External Job Posting Number: #79-18-19-YW.LTO

Job Title: 0.8 FTE YOUTH WORKER

This position is a temporary position expected to last longer than 6 months and is posted under article 12.01 (a) of the CUPE collective agreement)

Job Description:

The Youth Worker position addresses the social, emotional and behavioural needs of students with their families and the school community. A key component to the role of Youth Worker in ALCDSB is the ability to build and model healthy, positive relationships and to develop rapport within the school community. The work supports school based mental health promotion and whole school programming for student well-being. The needs are identified by students, parents, administration, teaching and support staff and outside agencies. The Youth Worker offers support to individual students, groups or classrooms to develop skills and strategies that support engagement in their learning environment.
